

Hair Styles Trends: Go Bold or Go Casual this Fall 2012

This fall, short hair is in and according to Rusk Celebrity Hair Stylist, Naz Kupelian, of the Naz Kupelian Salon, located in Lexington, MA, the tapered bob is all the rage. Miley Cyrus took the plunge; will your client be next? This fashion-forward look complements anyone who struts it. By surrounding the perimeters of the face closely, a bob invites great volume and shape. Add to this stylish look with angled bangs and Naz says it will create an edgy and vivacious look.

For Kupelian, bold is best. Take ombre a step further and add a bright colorful streak or two to hair. A few flashy strips will stand out and turn heads. If your client is a brunette, why not spice it up with a couple of red or blonde strands? Even better, for the adventurous and confident client, adding some streaks of blue or purple makes an intriguing statement that will attract lots of attention! Christina Aguilera has been seen rocking a variety of rainbow color pieces on the red carpet and on this season of The Voice.

Sock bun, high bun, ballerina bun, whatever you want to call it, this sleek hairstyle will give clients an at-the-office or out-on-the-town sophisticated look that will be sure to draw attention. Popular during red carpet season, celebs like Beyoncé and Lauren Conrad have been spotted with the classic up-do.

Just because the weather isn't warm, doesn't mean hair color can't be. Texturize and give hair a rich appeal with warm undertones like strawberry blondes, deep burgundy reds & chocolate browns. These hot fall colors provide the perfect balance between sweet and sexy!
