You Deserve The Best . . . At-home highlights!

Whether you prefer an essential-oil-infused formula that'll leave your hair naturally shiny or a temporary spray that'll let you experiment without worry, we have the at-home highlight kits sure to be the highlight of your summer look! If you want . . .

SUN-KISSED BLONDE STREAKS:

Clairel Nice 'n Easy Frost & Tip

"Hair artist" Naz Kupelian of the Naz Kupelian Salon in Lexington, MA, says this is the safest route to sunny highlights. "At the salon we do corrective color, repairing the harsh yellows women often get with at-home kits. But this formulation gives you beautiful, perfectly even blonde highlights," he says. "The color takes quickly, and since it comes with an ultra-moisturizing conditioner, the hair always looks super-shiny."

PERFECT BRUNETTE SHIMMER:

Revlon Frost & Glow

For highlights to work on dark hair, they must have the right "tonality" (i.e., no brassiness), says stylist Kenneth Darrell of Nashville's Studio 627. "And with Revlon, you get just that," he says. Plus, this kit comes with a cap that lets you choose which areas to emphasize; for instance, you can create a pretty face frame and leave the rest of your hair untreated. "It's so user-friendly, it prevents a lot of mistakes."

TO COVER STRAY GRAYS:

L'Oréal Frost & Design Pull-Through Cap

"This is one of the best highlight kits out there," says Karen Monterichard (MakeupandBeautyBlog.com). "The cap creates really natural-looking highlights because you decide how much hair to pull through it—for subtle streaks or chunkier highlights. And unlike other kits, since the cream formula is extra-conditioning, it works well on grays, softening them so they absorb the dye more easily."

COMMITMENT-FREE COLOR:

Jerome Russell's Temporary Highlight Spray-in Natural Color

If bad hair-color choices have left you hesitant to dye, you'll love this product that lets you "try on" a color, then wash it out. "With this temporary highlight spray, you can see what you'd look like with blonde or brown highlights," says world-renowned colorist Rita Hazan, who's colored the hair of such celebrities as Jennifer Lopez and Brooke Shields. "It's a great way to jazz up your hair."

"GREEN"-ER GLOSS:

Garnier Nutrisse Nourishing Multi-Lights

"Healthy": That's the word celebrity stylist Ja'coall Bergstrom of Salon Mario Russo in MA uses to describe this kit. "It contains avocado oil, which is super-conditioning and takes some of the harshness away from dyeing your hair," she says. "It also has shine-enhancing grapeseed oil; in my book, when you can find a product with essential oils, it's much better for your hair, for the environment, and all the way around."

ALL-OVER COLOR— WITH BUILT-IN HIGHLIGHTS:

L'Oréal Féria Multi-Faceted Shimmering Colour 3x Highlights

"It leaves my hair so sparkly!" gushes Shannon Nelson (GottaSpa.blogspot.com) of this shine booster. "And since it enhances your natural highlights, you don't need any other product. When I met Nick Arroj [of TLC's What Not To Wear] even he couldn't believe how healthy my hair looked; he said it so many times, I just had to laugh!"
